

Midwest Snocross Season Opener an Immediate Hit

Ironwood, MI (December 18th, 2023) - The 2023-24 Midwest Snocross Series is well and truly underway as the series opened their 3rd season with round 1 this past weekend at the Mt. Zion Ski Hill in Ironwood, Michigan. With riders from all around and racing nonstop, the event marked.

yet another success for the series.

Over 238 entries with 118 riders representing 6 U.S. states and 2 Canadian Provinces.

Riders from Wisconsin, Michigan, Minnesota, Alabama, Illinois, and Iowa represented the United States, while riders from Ontario and Quebec represented Canada. 4 manufacturers were also present, with riders on Polaris, Arctic Cat, Yamaha, and Ski-Doo sleds.

The heat races and LCQ paved the way for the final 24 races. Race 1, Transition 11-13 saw a podium of Dominic Munford, Memphis Beson, and Logan Bruch. Race 2, MLK Carpentry and Design 200 Stock 6-12 finished with a podium of Connor Muir, Lincoln Skar, and Eli Pallin. Race 3, Professional Plating Novice had a podium of Brodie Lund, Evan Schwier, and Landon Giese. Race 4, Pro 206 6-12 saw Harrison Skar, Connor Muir, and Russell Walsh all podium. Race 5, Snow Country Custom Racing Junior 10-13 witnessed a podium of Ava Kruschke, Colden Harnois, and Memphis Beson. Race 6, Brown Brother Racing Pro Am Women's saw Janiece Brown, Mckaylee Meyerhofer, and Hailey Brown all on the podium.

Race 7 saw 2 classes, with Levi Dahl picking up the win in the 120 Imp Stock 8-12 class, while Lincoln Skar, Caden Johnson, and Deegan Giguere finishing on the podium of the 120 Champ 6-12 class. Jordan Wolfe won Race 8, Pro Lite, with Nathan Mailloux and Cade Fleming on the podium. Race 9 went Logan Bruch's way with Colden Harnois and Ava Kruschke finishing behind in the Junior 10-13 2 class. Race 10, Rhinelander Cabins 200 Stock 6-7 was won by Harrison Skar, with Jackson Kafka and Rhett Devault finishing second and third. Recreational Motorsports 200 Stock 10-12, Race 11, had a podium of Lincoln Skar, Abram Newton, and Benny Cook. Race 12, C&A Pro Sport Lite saw Jerrett Junemann, Ryder Harnois, and Matthew Moadlo all on the podium.

Race 13 was a 2 class race, with Junior Girls 9-13 going to Eleanor Schmidt, with Ava Kruschke and Trinity Olson on the podium with her while Hailey Brown picked up the Junior Girls 14-17 class in the same race. Race 14, 40 plus, went to Augie Hoffmann while Mike Gagliano and Adam Konz joined him on the podium. Tomahawk Sports Center Plus 30, Race 15, was won by Chris Kafka, with Adam S. Johnson and Brad Carman second and third respectively. Race 16, Town & Country Transition Combined 8-12 was won by Beckum Pete while Dominic Munford and Noah Gillis followed him onto the podium. Race 17, 120 Imp Stock 6-7 went to Vincenzo Diorio, with Russell Walsh and Rhett Devault on the podium.

Millennium Technologies Sport, Race 18, went to Jerrett Junemann, with Nick Kurth and Eric Reinemann on the podium as well. Race 19, Goodwin Performance Transition 8-10 had a podium of Noah Hillis, Axel Kruschke, and Beau Engel. Recreational Motorsports 120 Imp 4-12, Race 20, went to Jakob Blenker, with Vincenzo Diorio and Rhett Devault joining him on the podium. Brodie Lund won Race 21, Snow Studs Junior 14-17, while Evan Schwier came second and Larsen Brown came third. Race 22, Kafka Granite 200 Stock 8-9, was won by Noah Kuhn, with the rest of the podium filled by Connor Muir and Eli Pallin. Race 23, Rollin Transport 120 Imp Stock 4-5 saw a podium of Vincenzo Diorio, Jakob Blenker, and Bennett Devault. The final race of the day, Race 24, Pro Am, saw Brian Peterson pick up the win after a battle with Nathan Mailloux, with Jordan Wolfe rounding out the podium.

Rounds 2 and 3 of the Midwest Snocross Series will take place in Hartford, WI, on January 6th and 7th. That Saturday the 6th, the RK Compound, thanks to support from Complete Lawn & Landscape Supply and Pete's Transport will be putting on a $10,000 Dollar to win Dominator Race.

Both dates will be regular points races for MWSS as well. To learn more about the event or series, go to midwestsnocross.com or follow the series on Facebook today!!

Article Credit: Zack Krueger

Photo Credit: Emily Schwanke